

TOMB RAIDER

Tomb Raider II "Venice motorboat"

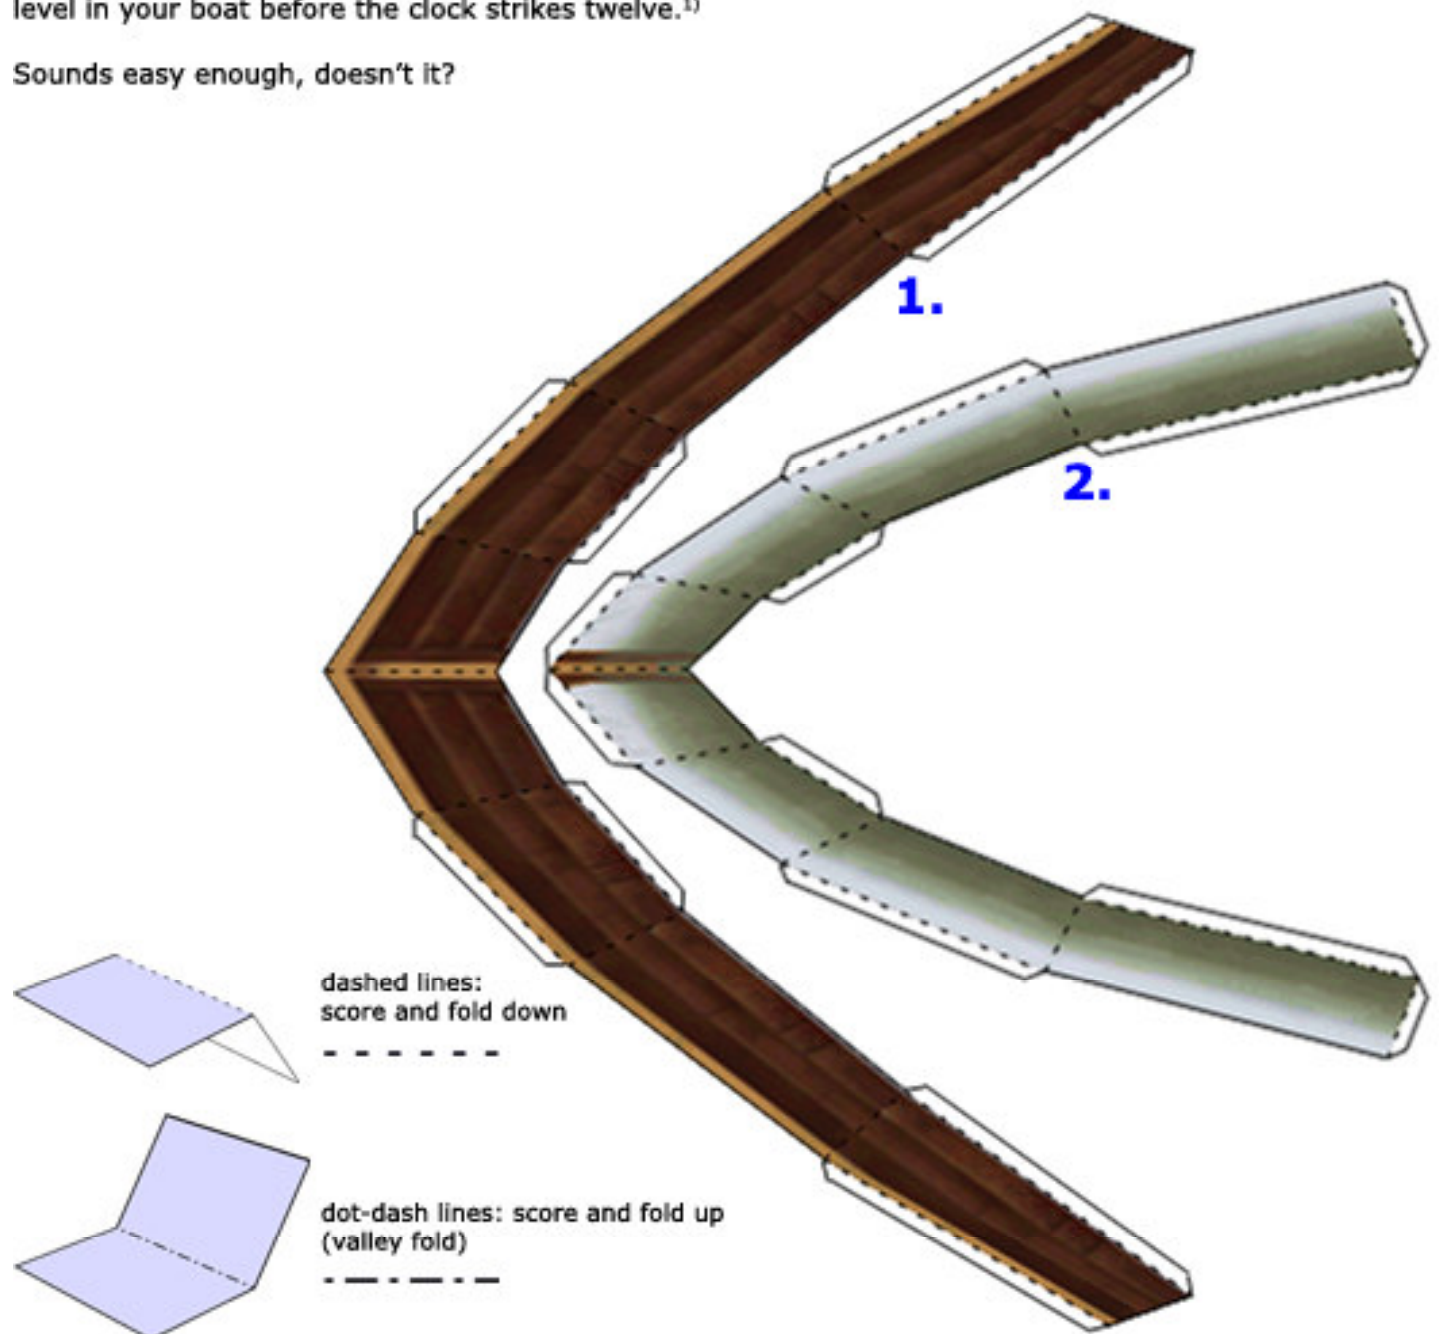

Lara Croft's second 3D action/adventure has her raiding tombs all over the world again, this time in search of the mystical Dagger of Xian. Not finding it at the Great Wall of China, it's off to Venice...

In the Venice level, all you have to do is exit the level through some doors that lead to Bartoli's Hideout (play the game if you want to know more ;o). What's the catch, you ask?

The catch is that these doors are on a timer, so what you need to do, is blow up some mines, open up some gates to create a shortcut, drive this motorboat up a ramp and through a couple of windows, and exit the level in your boat before the clock strikes twelve.¹⁾

Sounds easy enough, doesn't it?

¹⁾ (technically, there's a much easier way without the time limit, but it isn't half as fun... ;o)
